

I wish to support this RM. The 160 meter band plan without some Federal regulation and enforcement does not completely work. There is no reason that this band should not be officially segregated as are the other amateur bands.